8. Content & schedule in details:

The Freshers' Celebration was organized to warmly welcome first-year students and help them adapt to the college environment. The program began at around 11:00 a.m. with a brief introductory session, where fresher's were welcomed and informed about the schedule of activities. This was followed by fun and interactive games designed especially for fresher's, which helped break the ice, reduce nervousness, and encourage active participation. After the games, students were given an opportunity to showcase their talents through various performances such as singing, dancing, and other creative acts. A major attraction of the event was the ramp walk, where freshers confidently expressed their personality and gained self-confidence. Seniors motivated and supported the participants, creating a friendly and encouraging atmosphere throughout the event.

Arrangements for refreshments and snacks were made and served during the program, ensuring comfort and enjoyment for everyone. The celebration concluded successfully at around 4:00 p.m., leaving freshers with memorable experiences and a sense of belonging to the college.

9. Program outcome achieved:

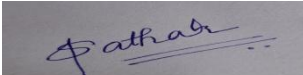

1. Improved interaction and bonding between freshers and senior students
2. Enhanced communication and social skills through games and stage activities
3. Promoted team spirit, cooperation, and inclusiveness.
4. Left freshers with memorable experiences and a strong sense of belonging to the college.
