REPORT ON SATYANARAYAN PUJA

Date: 08/11/2025

Organized by: Department of BBA/BCA

Time: 8:00 am

Venue : S.B Patil Junior College, 6th floor

The Department of BBA and BCA successfully organized a Satyanarayan Puja on to commemorate the inauguration and blessing of the department's newly constructed floor. The auspicious Satyanarayan Puja was performed to seek the blessings of Lord Vishnu, in the form of Satyanarayan, for the prosperity, success, and well-being of the departments, their faculty, and the students utilizing the new floor. The ceremony commenced with the rituals and prayers led by the assigned priest. The entire faculty and staff of the BBA and BCA departments, along with numerous students, were present to participate in the sacred event.

The primary objective of conducting the Satyanarayan Puja was to sanctify the new floor, ensuring a positive and conducive environment for academic pursuits, administrative functioning, and overall departmental growth. It served as a formal spiritual commencement for operations on the new premises. The ceremony culminated in a formal inauguration, graced by the presence of the respected Dr. Smriti Pathak ma'am the Head of the Department and Dr. Harish Tiwari sir the Principal, who officially opened the floor for use.

The puja ceremony was conducted with great fervor and reverence, successfully instilling a sense of positivity and divine blessing among all attendees. The participation of the HOD and Principal in the inauguration marked a significant milestone for the departments. The event concluded successfully, symbolizing a fresh and prosperous start for the BBA and BCA departments on their expanded premises.
