Introduction

On the occasion of the 150th Birth Anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, a padyatra was organized at Chafekar Chowk, Chinchwad Gaon to commemorate his invaluable contribution to the nation and to promote the values of unity, integrity, and national pride.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers of Pimpri Chinchwad College of Engineering and Research (PCCOER) participated enthusiastically in this rally, demonstrating strong social responsibility and patriotic spirit.

Description of the Activity

The padyatra witnessed active involvement of NSS volunteers who marched with discipline and enthusiasm. Through their participation, students paid tribute to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, popularly known as the Iron Man of India, and helped spread awareness about national unity and integrity among the general public.

The rally served as a platform to inspire citizens, especially the youth, to follow the ideals of leadership, dedication, and nation-building upheld by Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.

Objectives of the Activity

- To commemorate the 150th birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel.
- To promote the values of national unity, integrity, and patriotism.
- To encourage active community participation among students.
- To instill a sense of social and national responsibility in NSS volunteers.

Outcome and Impact

Participation in the padyatra enhanced the volunteers' awareness of national values and strengthened their sense of patriotism. The activity also encouraged interaction with the local community and reinforced the role of students in promoting social harmony and unity.

Conclusion

The enthusiastic participation of PCCOER NSS volunteers in the padyatra made the event meaningful and impactful. Such activities play a vital role in shaping responsible citizens and fostering respect for national leaders and their ideals.
