Introduction

Birsa Munda Jayanti was celebrated at Pimpri Chinchwad College of Engineering and Research (PCCOER), Ravet on 15th November 2025 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Birsa Munda, a great tribal freedom fighter and social reformer. The event was organized under the National Service Scheme (NSS) with the aim of spreading awareness about his life, struggles, and contributions to India's freedom movement. The celebration highlighted the importance of remembering national heroes who played a crucial role in uplifting tribal communities and fighting against injustice.

Description of the Activity

The program was conducted in the college premises with the presence of faculty members, staff, and NSS volunteers. The celebration began with a tribute to Birsa Munda, where a photograph of the great leader was respectfully placed and decorated with flowers. Faculty members and participants paid their respects by offering floral tributes. A brief introduction about the life and achievements of Birsa Munda was shared to inspire students and spread awareness about his role in India's freedom struggle and tribal rights movement. The event created an atmosphere of respect and reflection, encouraging participants to learn from the values of courage, leadership, and social justice demonstrated by Birsa Munda.

Objectives of the Activity

- To commemorate the birth anniversary of the tribal freedom fighter Birsa Munda.
- To create awareness about his contribution to India's freedom struggle.
- To promote respect for tribal culture and heritage.
- To inspire students with the values of leadership, courage, and social justice.

Outcome and Impact

The celebration helped participants gain knowledge about the historical significance and contributions of Birsa Munda. It encouraged students and staff to appreciate the sacrifices made by tribal leaders in India's independence movement.

The event also promoted cultural awareness, respect for tribal heritage, and national pride among the participants.

Conclusion

The celebration of Birsa Munda Jayanti at PCCOER was successfully conducted with enthusiastic participation from faculty members and NSS volunteers. Such programs play an important role in educating students about India's rich history and honoring the contributions of great leaders who fought for justice and equality.
