Introduction

A Blood Donation Camp was successfully organized on 16th February 2026 at Pimpri Chinchwad College of Engineering and Research (PCCOER), Ravet. The camp was conducted by the NSS Unit of PCCOER in collaboration with Sassoon Hospital Blood Bank, Pune on the occasion of S. B. Patil Jayanti Celebration, which is observed every year in the institution.

The primary objective of the camp was to encourage voluntary blood donation among students, faculty members, and staff and to contribute to society by supporting hospitals and patients in need of blood.

Description of the Activity

The Blood Donation Camp was organized within the college campus with the support and guidance of the medical team from Sassoon Hospital Blood Bank. Proper arrangements such as registration desks, medical check-ups, donation beds, and refreshment facilities were made to ensure a smooth and safe blood donation process.

Students, faculty members, and staff actively participated in the camp and voluntarily donated blood. The medical team conducted preliminary health screenings before allowing donors to donate blood, ensuring that all safety protocols were followed.

The event received an enthusiastic response from the college community. Through collective participation and social responsibility, the camp successfully collected 243 bags of blood, which will help save many lives.

Objectives of the Activity

- To encourage voluntary blood donation among students and staff.
- To create awareness about the importance of blood donation in saving lives.
- To contribute to healthcare services and support patients in need.
- To develop a sense of social responsibility and humanitarian values among students.

Outcome and Impact

The Blood Donation Camp was highly successful, with 243 units (bags) of blood collected during the event. The active participation of students, faculty members, and staff reflected the strong spirit of social service within the PCCOER community.

The camp not only contributed significantly to the blood bank but also increased awareness among participants about the importance of regular voluntary blood donation.

Conclusion

The Blood Donation Camp organized by the NSS Unit of PCCOER in collaboration with Sassoon Hospital Blood Bank was a great success. The enthusiastic participation of the college community helped make the event impactful and meaningful.

Such initiatives strengthen the values of service, compassion, and community responsibility, aligning with the core objectives of the National Service Scheme.
