Introduction

The NSS Unit of Pimpri Chinchwad College of Engineering and Research (PCCOER), Ravet, organized a Special Winter Camp (Shram Sanskar Shibir) at Rihe Village, Taluka Mulshi, District Pune from 5th January 2026 to 11th January 2026.

The camp was organized with the objective of developing social responsibility, leadership qualities, and community engagement among NSS volunteers. The camp focused on sustainable development, water conservation, soil conservation, and rural development activities.

Description of the Activity

During the seven-day camp, NSS volunteers actively participated in various community service and awareness activities in Rihe village. Volunteers engaged with villagers, conducted awareness programs, and carried out development activities for the benefit of the local community.

The camp began with an inauguration program, followed by daily schedules including morning yoga sessions, shramdan (voluntary labor), village visits, group discussions, and awareness lectures.

Major activities conducted during the camp included:

- Cleanliness Drives (Swachhata Abhiyan) in the village and public places.
- Tree Plantation Activities to promote environmental awareness.
- Village Visits and Interaction with Local Residents to understand rural challenges.
- Temple and School Campus Beautification Activities.
- Health Awareness Programs and Health Camp for villagers.
- Preparation of Compost/Fertilizer Project and agricultural awareness.
- Cyber Security Awareness Session conducted by cyber security officials.
- Women's Health Awareness Program for village women.
- Financial Literacy Awareness Lecture for villagers.

- Morning Prabhat Pheri (Awareness Rally) to spread social awareness.
- Cultural Programs performed by volunteers to promote unity and social awareness.

Daily activities also included yoga, physical exercises, group discussions, educational activities with school children, and social awareness lectures in the evening sessions.

Objectives of the Camp

- To develop social responsibility and leadership qualities among NSS volunteers.
- To promote awareness about environmental protection, water conservation, and soil conservation.
- To encourage students to understand rural life and community development.
- To strengthen interaction between the college and rural communities.
- To promote cleanliness, health awareness, and social responsibility.

Outcome and Impact

The NSS Winter Camp created a positive impact on the villagers of Rihe through various awareness programs and community service activities. Villagers benefited from health awareness, financial literacy programs, agricultural guidance, and cleanliness initiatives.

For NSS volunteers, the camp provided practical exposure to rural life, teamwork, leadership development, and community service. It helped students develop empathy, social awareness, and a strong sense of responsibility towards society.

Conclusion

The NSS Special Winter Camp at Rihe village was successfully conducted with active participation from NSS volunteers, faculty members, and the local community. The camp strengthened the bond between the college and the village while promoting sustainable development and social awareness.

Such camps play a vital role in shaping students into responsible citizens committed to nation-building and community development.
