Introduction

A street play competition on social issues was jointly organized by Maharashtra Andhashraddha Nirmoolan Samiti, Chakan Branch, Vasundhara Bahuuddeshiya Sanstha, and Late Kum. Reshma (Manutai) Deshmukh Memorial Trust, Chakan. The National Service Scheme (NSS) volunteers of PCCOER actively participated in this socially relevant event.

The NSS volunteer team presented a street play based on the theme “De-addiction”, highlighting the harmful effects of addiction on individuals, families, and society, and emphasizing the importance of leading an addiction-free life.

Achievement in the Competition

The impactful performance and strong social message delivered by the NSS volunteers were highly appreciated by the judges. In recognition of their commendable efforts, the team was awarded the Encouragement Prize in the competition.

Objectives of the Activity

- To create awareness about the ill effects of addiction among society.
- To inculcate social responsibility and ethical values among students.
- To use street play as an effective medium for social awareness and communication.

Outcome and Social Impact

The activity helped students develop confidence, teamwork, and communication skills while addressing an important social issue. It also enabled direct interaction with the community, spreading awareness about de-addiction and motivating people towards a healthier and responsible lifestyle. The encouragement prize received by the team stands as a matter of pride and motivation for all NSS volunteers.
