Introduction

The NSS Unit A-112 organized a Farewell Programme to express gratitude and appreciation to the outgoing NSS volunteers for their dedicated service and valuable contributions throughout their tenure. The Programme provided an opportunity to recognize their commitment towards community service, reflect on memorable experiences and motivate the next batch of volunteers to uphold the values of NSS.

Objectives of the Activity

- To appreciate and recognize the contributions of outgoing NSS volunteers.
- To encourage a spirit of selfless service among continuing and newly enrolled volunteers.
- To provide a platform for sharing experiences and learning from NSS activities.
- To strengthen the bond among NSS volunteers, coordinators and faculty members.
- To inspire students to continue participating in social service initiatives.

Programme Highlights

- Welcome address by the NSS Programme Officer Mr. Sujit Chaudhari.
- Felicitation of outgoing NSS volunteers with certificates, mementos or appreciation letters.
- Sharing of experiences and memories by outgoing volunteers.
- Motivational address by the Director Harish Tiwari, Chief Guest Mr. Sushant Balgude, and Dean Dr. Mayura Yeole.
- Fun activities for NSS volunteers.
- Vote of thanks and group photograph.

Social Impact

- Promoting a culture of volunteerism and community service.
- Encouraging continuity of NSS activities through mentorship between outgoing and incoming volunteers.
- Recognizing exemplary service, thereby motivating future volunteers to engage in community development.
- Strengthening the sense of responsibility, leadership and civic engagement among students.
