Introduction

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit A-112 of Pimpri Chinchwad College of Engineering and Research (PCCOER) organized an NSS Orientation Programme on 11th August 2026 to introduce students to the objectives, activities and functioning of the National Service Scheme. The programme aimed to create awareness among students about the role of NSS in developing social responsibility, community engagement, leadership qualities and a spirit of service.

Objectives of the Activity

- To introduce students to the vision, objectives and functioning of the National Service Scheme.
- To create awareness about the role and responsibilities of NSS volunteers.
- To motivate students to actively participate in community service and social development activities.
- To develop leadership, teamwork, discipline and communication skills among students.
- To familiarize students with various NSS activities such as environmental conservation, health awareness, cleanliness drives, social awareness campaigns and community development initiatives.
- To encourage students to contribute meaningfully to society in accordance with the NSS motto, "Not Me But You."

Programme Highlights

- The NSS Orientation Programme commenced with a warm welcome to the Chief Guest, Dr. Sandip Jagdale, along with the dignitaries, faculty members and NSS volunteers.

- Dr. Sandip Jagdale, Chief Guest, introduced the students to the purpose and significance of the National Service Scheme and highlighted the role of NSS in developing responsible and socially committed citizens.
- The programme provided students with an overview of the objectives, activities and functioning of NSS and its contribution towards community development.
- Students were briefed about the roles and responsibilities of NSS volunteers and the importance of active participation in various service-oriented activities.
- The volunteers were informed about various activities planned by the NSS Unit, including cleanliness drives, tree plantation, environmental awareness, health awareness, social awareness programmes and community outreach initiatives.
- The importance of discipline, teamwork, leadership, communication and social responsibility in NSS activities was explained to the students.
- Students interacted with the Chief Guest and NSS faculty coordinators and discussed their participation in upcoming NSS activities.
- The programme was attended by Dr. Mayura Yeole, Dean, Student Development and Welfare (SDW), Prof. Tushar Gaikwad, Associate Dean, SDW, and Prof. Sujit Chaudhari, NSS Programme Officer.
- NSS faculty coordinators from various departments were also present, including Dr. Anil Kate (Civil), Ms. Poonam Chavan (Computer), Ms. Rashmi More (Computer), Ms. Kalyani Fulpagar (BCA), Ms. Amruta Dixit (BBA) and Ms. Priyanka Deshmukh.
- The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, followed by a group photograph of the Chief Guest, dignitaries, NSS faculty coordinators and volunteers.

Social Impact

- Increased awareness among students regarding the objectives and significance of the National Service Scheme.
- Encouraged students to actively participate in community service and social development activities.
- Promoted values of social responsibility, teamwork, leadership and empathy among students.
- Helped students understand the importance of contributing to society beyond academic activities.
- Strengthened the NSS Unit's engagement with students and encouraged greater participation in future community-oriented programs.
- Motivated students to uphold the NSS motto, "Not Me But You," through meaningful service to society.
