Introduction

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit A-112 of Pimpri Chinchwad College of Engineering and Research (PCCOER) organized a community outreach visit to Emmanuel Orphanage, Thergaon on 24th September 2026. The visit was undertaken as part of NSS community engagement activities with the objective of providing students an opportunity to interact with children, understand their needs and contribute towards their educational and day-to-day requirements.

As part of the initiative, essential educational and stationery materials were arranged for the children along with refreshments. The activity was supported through contributions mobilized for the community outreach initiative.

Objectives of the Activity

- To promote social responsibility and community service among NSS volunteers.
- To provide educational and stationery materials to the children of Emmanuel Orphanage.
- To provide an opportunity for meaningful interaction and engagement between NSS volunteers and the children.
- To encourage students to understand and respond to community needs through collective efforts.
- To develop empathy, teamwork, compassion and a spirit of service among NSS volunteers.
- To strengthen the association between PCCOER NSS Unit and community institutions working for the welfare of children.

Programme Highlights

- A group of 23 NSS student volunteers accompanied by one faculty member visited Emmanuel Orphanage, Thergaon.
- The NSS volunteers interacted with the children and representatives of the orphanage, creating an opportunity for meaningful social interaction and community engagement.
- Educational and stationery materials were provided for the children to support their academic and creative activities.
- The materials included graph books, notebooks, crayons, sketch pens, chart paper, project paper, sharpeners, erasers, glossy paper, pens, colour paper, Fevicol, geometry boxes, exam pads, button folders, drawing books, A5 books, A4 books and pencils.
- Refreshments including mini samosas, chocolates and cake/patties were also arranged for the children.
- The interaction provided NSS volunteers with an opportunity to understand the importance of education, care and community support in the lives of children residing in institutional care.
- The activity encouraged students to participate actively in community-oriented initiatives and experience the values of sharing, empathy and social responsibility.
- The programme concluded with interaction and acknowledgement of the participation and support of the NSS volunteers, faculty member and the representatives of Emmanuel Orphanage.
