Introduction

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit A-112 of Pimpri Chinchwad College of Engineering and Research (PCCOER) organized a community outreach visit to Vatsalya Divyang Mulanchi Niwasi Shala, Dehu Gaon on 19th September 2026 on the occasion of Ganesh Festival celebration. The initiative was undertaken by NSS student volunteers to celebrate the spirit of the festival through community service, sharing and social engagement.

As part of the initiative, voluntary contributions were collected from faculty members and students through crowdfunding. A total amount of Rs. 19,162/- was collected, comprising Rs. 16,022/- from faculty members and Rs. 3,140/- from students. An amount of Rs. 11,939/- was utilized for procuring essential grocery and daily-use items, which were donated to Vatsalya School for Autistic & Mentally Challenged, Dehu. The balance amount from the voluntary contributions was retained and subsequently utilized towards other community outreach activities undertaken as part of the NSS initiative.

Objectives of the Activity

- To celebrate the spirit of Ganesh Festival through community service and social responsibility.
- To promote the values of sharing, compassion and service among NSS volunteers.
- To provide essential grocery and daily-use materials to Vatsalya Divyang Mulanchi Niwasi Shala.
- To encourage students to actively participate in meaningful community outreach initiatives during festivals.

- To provide students with an opportunity for meaningful interaction and engagement with the children and representatives of the institution.
- To develop empathy, teamwork and a sense of social responsibility among NSS volunteers.

Programme Highlights

- A group of 15 NSS student volunteers accompanied by one faculty member participated in the community outreach visit to Vatsalya Divyang Mulanchi Niwasi Shala, Dehu Gaon.
- The activity was planned and carried out by NSS student volunteers as part of the Ganesh Festival community outreach initiative.
- Essential grocery and daily-use materials were procured and donated to the institution as a gesture of care and community support during the festival.
- The donated materials included wheat, sunflower oil, sugar, rava, poha, peanuts, toor dal, moong dal, soaps, hand wash, floor cleaner, detergent, dish wash and toilet cleaner.
- NSS volunteers interacted with the children and representatives of the institution, providing an opportunity for meaningful social interaction and sharing the festive spirit.
- The interaction enabled the volunteers to understand the importance of compassion, inclusion and collective community participation during festivals.
- The activity provided students with practical experience in planning, resource mobilization, teamwork and execution of a community service initiative.
- The programme concluded with acknowledgement and appreciation of the efforts and participation of the NSS volunteers, faculty members and students.
